

KIM R. WALLIN, CMA, CFM, CPA

STATE CONTROLLER

Kim Wallin is a native Nevadan and is the first CPA to be elected to the office of State Controller in 50 years. She is the first CMA (Certified Management Accountant) to hold this office.

Kim is currently a member of the AGA Partnership for Intergovernmental Management and Accountability Steering Committee, a Director on the NASC Executive Committee and member of the IMA XBRL Committee. In addition she is a member of the Institute of Management Accountants, AICPA, NSCPA, NASACT and AGA. She recently served on a workgroup that was formed by an Executive Order to address improper payments. Nevada was one of only three States that were asked to serve on the workgroup.

In September 2003, Accounting Today recognized Wallin as one of the 100 most influential people in accounting in the country. In September 2006 she was named “Woman CPA of the Year” of the entire country by the American Women’s Society of CPA’s.

Kim is the former Chair of the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA), the world’s leading organization dedicated to empowering management accounting and finance professionals to drive business performance. Wallin served as Chair of IMA in 2003-2004.

She served for two years on the Ethics Committee of the Nevada Society of CPA’s (NSCPA).

She is President of her own Las Vegas based accounting firm, D K Wallin, Ltd which she founded in 1984. Previously, she worked for Joseph F. Zerga, Ltd.

Wallin graduated from UNLV completing a degree in Business Administration with a major in accounting.

Kim has been active with local service and volunteer organizations. She has been President of Soroptimist International of Creative Las Vegas and has served as the Treasurer for the Opus Dance Ensemble and the Actors Repertory Theatre.

Kim’s hobbies include wine tasting and gourmet cooking. She also enjoys working out, golf, skiing, hiking and even has a black belt in Aikido!
